Golden, Silver Jubilees Noted by Royal Neighbors

Next regular meeting of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will be Tuesday, December 4, when the annual election of officers will be held.

The pre-Thanksgiving meeting will long be remembered by all the Neighbors in attendance. The orator of the camp, Mrs. Vertie Grima, in her usual gracious manner presented pins emblematic of 25 years of membership in the society. Several Neighbors were unable to be present and the orator will personally present the pins to them in their homes or at the next meeting. One member, Mrs. Cora Sedelmaier, celebrated her golden anniversary of membership at this time and was presented with a pin which had been sent to the supreme orator, Mrs. Frances L. Torkelson.

Among the honored guests was the district deputy, Mrs. Mamie L. Kirchner of Culver City, who gave an inspiring message to the camp. A number of visitors from other cities were also in attendance. Guest officers were presented with lovely china cup and saucer sets by the Torrance officers. During the entertainment period Mrs. Sedelmaier played delightful piano selection. The lace-covered refreshment tables were lovely with lighted candles in silver candelabra. Beautiful chrysanthemums in various colors were used in large baskets to decorate the Camp Room. Mrs. Alta Ammon of Venice, president of the South Bay District Oracles Club and Mrs. Grima, orator of Torrance Camp, served coffee and tea from duplicate silver services. On the main table was displayed a gorgeous cake beautifully decorated, inscribed with the names of the persons honored on their silver anniversary, with the golden jubilarian's name at the top of the list.

The decorations and refreshment committees are to be commended for their proficiency.

OES Chapter Observes Annual Farewell Night

A capacity gathering of Eastern Star members Thursday evening witnessed the farewell meeting of Torrance chapter held in Masonic Temple. A beautifully effective Hawaiian theme was followed for the meeting, which was highlighted by a candlelight ceremony by the worthy matron, especially appropriate for the evening and carrying a special meaning to the members.

Chapter was called to order by the worthy patron, Gordon Mothersell and the officers entered in regular form making a beautiful picture. The worthy matron of the 92nd District for 1951 in pink velvet complimented by a gorgeous lei of variegated pink carnations flown here from Hawaii. The officers, dressed in white velvet, carried green and white fans with pink flowers. The Star Points, in variegated velvet gowns, carried white fans with pink flowers. The conductress, Joan Pierce, escorted the worthy matron to the East.

During escort the deputy grand matron and the 92nd District for 1952, Rena Pearson from San Pedro Harbor and the deputy grand matron for 1951, Grace Ham from Point Fermin, were escorted to the East. The following worthy matrons and worthy patrons were escorted and remained in the East: Juanita Lawson, Westchester; Mayme Beerup, Carnation; Vivian and Othel Brewer, San Pedro Harbor; Ann Martin and Leslie Baker, Playa Linda; Lorraine Bates and Leslie Parsons, Point Fermin; Ione Smaile and Olin Wandgrift, Wilmington. A fine group of past matrons and past patrons throughout the district were escorted including those from San Pedro Harbor, Playa Linda, Wilmington, Mary Smith, Honolulu and eighteen past matrons and four past patrons.

The associate matron, Alethea Smith and associate patron, Floyd Mead approached the East playing on ceramic ukuleles containing ivy and currency. The clever presentation suggested the Hawaiian theme of the evening.

DINNER GUESTS

Holiday dinner guests at the Floyds home were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schwab and son, Neil.

Charter Members Among Guests for 30th Birthday

It was a festive occasion for members of Trio Rebekah lodge No. 240 when they met recently in observance of the thirtieth birthday of the organization. Among the honored guests in attendance were Elizabeth Tappin, "mother" of lodge and past president of the jurisdiction of Arizona and charter members

Nora Luck and Ada Anderson, as well as Marie Kerber, who was in the first class initiated on the night that the charter was closed, November 30, 1921. Several presentations were made to the lodge during the evening in keeping with the occasion. Hattie Schroeder, president of the Past Noble Grand Chapter, was presented two coffee servers in behalf of the group; Trio Helpers, social club of the lodge, gave a gift of dishes with Retta Nelson making the presentation, and Teta Rho Girls also gave a gift.

Noble Grand Lella Sells presented and announced the official visit of Jennie Mae Annin, president of the Rebekah Assembly. First nominations of officers for the local lodge also were made.

The social hour was in charge of Gertrude Kastrup and her committee.

FIVEDAY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Deininger, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schultz, returned this week from Arizona where they spent the Thanksgiving weekend at Loma Vista Guest Ranch near Dateland.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Klink-scale's holiday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom A. Tompson of South Gate.

REUNION

Dinner guests Thursday at the W. A. Felker home were their daughter-in-law, Mrs. M. N. Felker, and daughters, Sharon and Andrea, and Mrs. Claudine De-four of Redondo Beach.

Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Stevenson entertained on Thanksgiving Day for their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Colombo and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith and their families.
